Dear Benefactors and Friends of the Seminary,

We want to wish you a solemn Holy Week and invite you to participate with joy in this Easter in the Resurrection of Jesus Christ.

In regards to the life of the seminary and the news, we can say that in these few months we have seen how God is always carrying out the seminary and the vocation of the seminarians with love.

After being in quarantine twice because of COVID, at Christmas and at the early March we can give thanks to the Lord because no-one has caught bad symptoms.

But above all we must rejoice because four of our seminarians will receive the Admissio ad Ordines on May 15:

Manuel Leal Almeida (Portugal), Julian Goez Hurtado (Colombia), Pablo Fernandez Velasco (Spain) and Marco Librasi (Italy). This is the first step for them on the path to the presbyterate, in which they give their conscious willingness to be formed to the priesthood despite the difficulties and struggles, and receive the collar.

They will not be the only ones to progress in this path. Giosuè Schirru (Italy) he will receive the Lettorato.

As you can see, we are beginning to taste the fruits that the Lord is causing to sprout, even if they are still a bit young to harvest them.

Our seminarians on itinerancy, Kiryl in Ukraine and Emmanuel in Spain also send their cordial greetings, who also see how God is working with them in a particular way.

We can only thank God for the history he makes with us and because he always provides for our needs. He provides precisely through concrete people like you, we trust in your generosity and we are sure that this generosity you give will be rewarded in this world and in the future.

We remember you always in our prayers. Sincerely with cordial greetings.

Happy Easter!!

The Seminarians, Fr. Eliaz and Fr. Severino.
